

Private Practice Registered Dietitian

•$55,000 - $100,000/year •Oklahoma City, OK 73120 •Part-Time/Full-Time/Contract

Are you a vibrant and experienced dietitian ready to make a mark in the world of private practice? Elevate your career in the heart of Oklahoma by joining Banister Nutrition in Oklahoma City, a thriving company with an illustrious 42 year legacy. As a key member of our team, you will play a crucial role in providing personalized nutrition therapy and fostering a supportive environment for your patients to meet their health and wellness goals.

What You'll Be Doing:

- 1) Conducting comprehensive nutrition assessments and crafting personalized nutrition plans that are unique for each of your patients.
- 2) Providing evidence-based guidance to tackle diverse health challenges.
- 3) Collaborating with our experienced healthcare team to provide harmonious and comprehensive patient care while honoring professional autonomy.
- 4) Foster a positive and empowering patient-practitioner relationship to support long-term success.
- 5) Independently manage your schedule, appointments and patient documentation in a way that supports positive patient outcomes and meets BN standards for quality care.
- 6) Crafting engaging social media content and writing one captivating blog post quarterly, allowing you to infuse creativity and enthusiasm into our on-line presence.

Why Banister Nutrition Shines:

- 1) Stellar Reputation: Over four decades BN has become esteemed by providers, the public and peers because we go out of our way to care for ALL who connect and cross paths with us. Every provider and every patient we have the opportunity to work with is a gift to us!

- 2) Consistent and Reliable Referrals: Fear not the private practice journey – we have many daily referrals, patients who want to be scheduled sooner vs later.
- 3) Legacy of Excellence: Step into a practice that has not just followed the path of success but paved it for 42 glorious years.

Culture of Connection:

When our team of dietitians was recently asked about the culture at Banister Nutrition they responded with the words of: strong legacy, positive reputation of 42 years, constant influx of referrals, innovative, deep established roots, each member of the team is highly respected and appreciated, celebratory of patient successes, birthdays, new babies. Holidays and anything fun! :)

“At Banister Nutrition we are committed to delivering exceptional patient-centered care. We celebrate the unique strengths of each dietitian, fostering a collaborative environment that emphasizes knowledge sharing, professional empowerment and genuine, inspiring connections to create a workplace where everyone flourishes.”

Why You'll Thrive With Us:

- 1) Hybrid Haven: We understand the importance of meeting the needs of our patients who want the opportunity to engage in impactful in-person counseling while also leveraging the flexibility of telehealth, ensuring accessible support for all patients.
- 2) Endless Support: Fear not the unknowns – you'll have a supportive team and a community of professionals ready to collaborate and mentor you to ensure your success.
- 3) Personal and Professional Opportunity: Dive into a dynamic environment where every day is a new opportunity to expand your skills and passion for nutrition.
